As my life goes on I believe,
somehow something's changed
something deep inside, a part of me.
There's a strange new light in my eyes,
things I've never known,
changing my life, changing me.
I've been searching so long
to find an answer.
Now I know my life has meaning.

It's funny how we take things for granted
And suddenly they're gone,
The memory of yesterday still warmed by today's smile
And tomorrow, where will it be?
Maybe we will have put it away,
But not forever; a person or just a memory is never lost on yesterday's paths
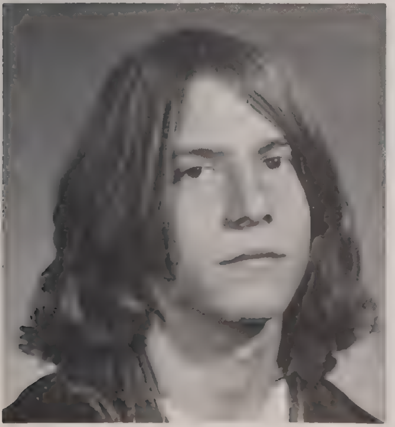
Yet tomorrow will see it worn as a smile.



In Memoriam
John Salvatore III

John brought happiness into all those lives he touched. But on Easter, 1977 that was taken away; from him, his family and his friends. The part of John that lingers behind today is what is in our memories and memories last forever.

faculty AND ADMINISTRATION

SUPERINTENDENT

The arrival of Dr. John P. Collins marked a radical change in the Shrewsbury High School Education System. The optimistic attitudes that prevailed as a result of an improved system cannot be measured in grades alone. The achievements of the class of 1980 will serve as an example of the effects of the dedication of Dr. Collins; and it is for these qualities we are sincerely appreciative.

SPIRIT WEEK!!

There was a new committee formed at the High School this year called the "School Pride and Spirit Committee." This committee led by Mr. Hochstein designated the week of January 14th to be a School Spirit Week.

Throughout the week there were various contests between the four classes, including decoration of the gym walls and a slogan contest, which was won by senior Lenny Schiavone with the slogan "Colonials fight to win."

Each day of the week had its own theme. There was hat day, twin day, fifties day, and blue and gold day. Each class was given points according to the number of students who participated on any given day.

Spirit week ended with pep rallies for all winter activities on Friday. When all of the points accumulated over the week were counted, it was announced that the Seniors and the Freshmen would share the honor of being the class with the most spirit for this year.

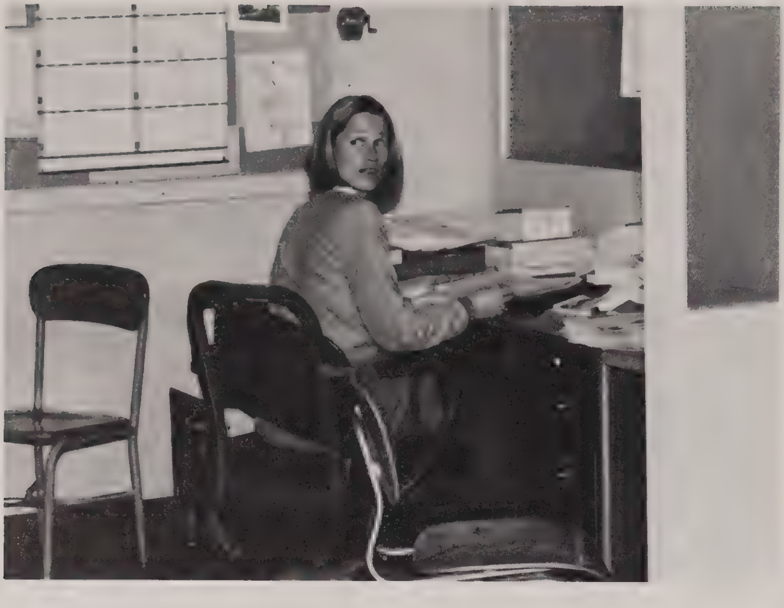
We would like to offer a special thanks to Janet Graves, who did a major part of the typing for this yearbook. Her time and effort is greatly appreciated by all.

The Class of 1980



The completion of this diary, our 1980 yearbook, would not have been possible without the help of our advisor, Mrs. Catherine Belliveau. She came at a time when she was most needed, showing us her foreknowledge of the yearbook craft. Mrs. Belliveau, your efforts have been endless. Thank you, from the Class of 1980.
